HISTORY COMES TO LIFE

Step back in time and engage yourself in Sweden's 19th century heritage. Wander through streets lined with houses and buildings of vast cultural and historical significance. Have a look inside the humble worker's residence, where families once shared a single room and kitchen, offering a glimpse into daily life of the era. Each location offers a unique window into Sweden's rich past, providing visitors with a truly unforgettable journey through time.

Torekällberget has no admission fee's, except for special events and guided tours for groups.

TOREKÄLLBERGET OPEN-AIR MUSEUM

Visitors can experience Christmas as it was celebrated in the 1800s, as well as traditional Swedish celebrations such as National Day and Midsummer, among other events throughout the year.

Many of the houses at Torekällberget are authentically furnished with artifacts from the museum's vast collections, offering a portrayal of life during the latter half of the 19th century and early 20th century. Stroll through the 19th century promenade park complete with twisting pathways, a soothing pond, and a charming pavilion. Additionally, the town square features several smaller exhibitions showing the rich history of Södertälje, providing visitors with fascinating insights into the area's past.

TOREKÄLLBERGET OPEN-AIR MUSEUM

Just beyond the historic town lies an old-fashioned farmhouse and soldier's cottage, nestled amidst lush paddocks and lush landscapes. Here, visitors can encounter our collection of historic domestic animal breeds, including sheep, cows, horses, goats, rabbits, and chickens.

Guided tours of the animals are available on weekends and school holidays, providing an educational and immersive experience for visitors of all ages.

SWEDISH CHRISTMAS FROM A BYGONE ERA

In December, Christmas is just around the corner at Torekällberget. Stroll through town and country with Christmas trees, Christmas lights, atmospheric music, and crackling fires. Step into the houses and meet life stories from a bygone era.

Dress up for photography in our historical photo studio, take a seat in a 19th-century classroom, or visit the farm animals. Shop for genuine Swedish crafts and enjoy all the flavors of winter in the store and café. Upon arrival, you will be welcomed by your host/guide dressed in period attire.

The host will accompany you throughout your stay. 300 SEK per person

Minimum booking for 10 people. For groups larger than 25, participants are divided into separate groups.

A FLOATING MUSEUM

Welcome aboard the magnificent Steamship Ejdern

Board a truly unique journey, as you step back in time and experience the magic of a bygone era. This extraordinary vessel holds the distinction of being the world's oldest coal-fired, propeller-powered steamship, still powered by its original motor dating back more than a hundred years.

The steamship is not just a charming relic; it is a floating museum that offers a unique opportunity to engage yourself in history.

Ejdern was built in 1880 at the Gothenburg Mechanical Workshop to operate in coastal traffic in the Gothenburg archipelago and was launched on May 14 of the same year. Between the years 1898 and 1906, Ejdern navigated the waters around Östergötland before eventually ending up in Södertälje.

During the summer season, S/S Ejdern becomes your gateway to some of Sweden's most captivating destinations. Hop aboard and cruise for Stockholm, the vibrant capital city. Or hit course for the fairytale-like town of Mariefred or the old Viking city of Birka, a UNESCO World Heritage site.

It is also possible to charter the ship for maximum 90 passengers.

SWEDEN'S FIRST CITY

Welcome to Birka, a site of historical significance as Sweden's first city and a UNESCO World Heritage site. Situated on Björkö Island in the waters of Lake Mälaren, this ancient trading hub offers a captivating glimpse into the rich tapestry of Viking culture and civilization.

Visitors have the opportunity to join guided tours of the archaeological fields, where they can immerse themselves in the daily lives and customs of the Vikings. These tours provide fascinating insights into everything from daily routines to trading practices, offering a firsthand experience of Viking life.

For those eager to delve deeper into the history of the region, the Birka Museum awaits, showcasing a treasure trove of ancient artifacts unearthed from the island's soil. Visitors can marvel at artifacts ranging from crafted jewelry to everyday household items, each offering a window into the past.

The highlight of any visit to Viking Birka is undoubtedly the reconstructed Viking village, where visitors can wander through authentic dwellings and workshops, gaining a deeper appreciation for the craftsmanship and creativity of the Viking people.

And after hours of exploration, guests can indulge in a culinary journey at the renowned Särinner restaurant, where authentic Swedish cuisine awaits.
