

TOREKÄLLBERGET MUSEUM

A Journey Through Time at Torekällberget

At the open-air museum Torekällberget, time stands still. Step into a Sweden of days gone by, in this peaceful oasis in the heart of the city. Stroll through the historic wooden town of Södertälje. Meet the people whose life stories are brought to life in the museum's unique environments. Visit the farmstead and experience country life with cows, horses, sheep, and pigs. Enjoy authentic, well-prepared food and drinks in historical settings. Shop for Swedish crafts and nostalgic sweets from the past in the merchant house.

With its central location in Södertälje, Torekällberget is an easily accessible destination for travellers by train, bus, or car. Torekällberget offers a journey through time for both young and old. For the curious, it is a source of knowledge. For the playful, there are several seasonal exhibits and play areas to explore.

Torekällberget has free entry, except during special events.

A Journey Through the Wooden Town of Södertälje – History, Flavors, and Charm

Additional 400 SEK per person. For larger groups (over 25 people), the group will be divided for a more personal experience.

Duration: Approximately 3 hours

Upon arrival, you will be greeted by your guide, dressed in authentic historical clothing, who will take you on an unforgettable journey through time and tradition.

Guided tour

Let yourself be swept away on a walk through the charming alleys of the old wooden town and its historic homes. Step inside the period houses and discover the fascinating stories of those who once lived here. What was daily life like? What scents filled the kitchens? What dreams and worries shaped their lives?

A Tasty Pause – Coffee or Lunch

After the tour, it's time to sit down and enjoy something delicious to eat.

Coffee – A Swedish Classic

Coffee is a sacred tradition in Sweden! Here, you'll experience a truly traditional "fika" – a coffee party with seven kinds of cakes, just like in the past. And, of course, our award-winning Södertälje pretzels take centre stage!

Lunch – Traditional Swedish Fare

Looking for a heartier break? At Café Lindblom's, we serve well-prepared Swedish comfort food, made with care and sustainable seasonal ingredients.

For larger groups, fika and lunch can be enjoyed at the charming Konditori Bellevue.

Merchant House – A Window to the Past

The visit ends at our historic merchant house, a living museum shop where you can browse Swedish crafts, nostalgic toys, and classic sweets from the past. A perfect place to find unique souvenirs and gifts to take home!
